What are Brian's teaching strengths and weaknesses?

Strengths: detailed, interactive, lots of explanations, takes time to ask questions and gauge understanding, uses visuals to explain topics

Weaknesses: fast

How can Brian improve as a teacher?

Sometimes Brian can go too fast, especially when he is writing code in the terminal. If he could slow down a little sometimes, that would be great.

What are Jeffrey's teaching strengths and weaknesses?

Strengths: likes to explain concepts and take things a little slower, is available to answer questions and act as a support to the materials taught.

Weaknesses:

How can Jeffrey improve as a teacher?

He only taught on the first day, so I don't remember enough to give input on improvements

Additional comments for either Brian and/or Jeffrey.

Thank you for taking more than 10 hours to dedicate your time to making sure that we understand everything and grasp the concepts.

What are Brian's teaching strengths and weaknesses?

Brian's teaching strengths is that he's patient with everyone and encourages us to learn from each others mistakes. His teaching weakness is that he goes a little fast when we're first learning something and sometimes his explanations for what we're doing can get a bit confusing.

How can Brian improve as a teacher?

Brian can improve as a teacher by making sure all students have a clear understanding of what we're supposed to be doing during the 5-20 minute working periods, possibly write brief instructions in the chat.

What are Jeffrey's teaching strengths and weaknesses?

Jeffrey's teaching strength is that his explanations are concise and easy to understand when learning new material. His teaching weakness is that he doesn't always have the programs that we're using and lacks some knowledge that Brian has, which does slow us down sometimes since we all aren't on the same page as him.

How can Jeffrey improve as a teacher?

Jeffrey can improve as a teacher by making sure he has the same programs downloaded as us and can pick up where Brian left off easier. He should try to be less reliant on Brian sometimes to explain certain things to us.

Additional comments for either Brian and/or Jeffrey.

I thought that you guys did a great job of teaching us the material we had to learn. It was a bit challenging to find a weakness for either of you.

What are Brian's teaching strengths and weaknesses?

He is very well educated, and there was a never a moment where I felt like Brian didn't know what he was doing. However, he did go a little too fast and often we fell behind causing lots of confusion.

How can Brian improve as a teacher?

He can slow down and take it step by step, showing us each step more carefully than just saying click enter x many times as everyone is unsure if they are at the correct place.

What are Jeffrey's teaching strengths and weaknesses?

Jeffrey seemed very knowledgeable as well, however he didn't talk a lot so I didn't learn much from him.

How can Jeffrey improve as a teacher?

Be more vocal.

What are Brian's teaching strengths and weaknesses?

Brian is very enthusiastic about teaching and making sure that his students completely understand the topic before moving on. He also does a good job of simplifying complex topics in chemistry and encourages his students to ask questions. As for weaknesses, I had a hard time thinking of them so I'm not sure there are any.

How can Brian improve as a teacher?

To improve as a teacher, I would say to continue encouraging students to ask questions and making sure that they understand the topic being discussed.

What are Jeffrey's teaching strengths and weaknesses?

Jeffrey seemed very knowledgeable about coding and also did a great job at organizing and simplifying the information that was discussed so that we could refer to it later. As for weaknesses, sometimes he went a little too fast and directions were unclear.

How can Jeffrey improve as a teacher?

For Jeffrey to improve as a teacher, he should continue to encourage his students to ask questions if things seem unclear or they aren't on the same page.

Additional comments for either Brian and/or Jeffrey.

Together both Brian and Jeffrey did a great job at teaching the material. Sometimes when Brian was unsure or Jeffrey was unsure of something, they were both able to help each other out and together they did a good job of teaching.
